Comprehensive Opioid Abuse Site-Based Program (COAP)
AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS NOTICE (AFN)
COAP CATEGORY 4 -REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS (RFA)

DFA-IGS has approximately $1,250,000 in grant funding from the U.S. Department of Justice Comprehensive Opioid Stimulant Substance Abuse Program grant, funded through the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act (CARA) that is available to address the opioid epidemic in the State. Funding will enable financial support to localities to implement strategies that focus on supporting treatment and recovery service engagement; provide prevention and education programs for youth; increasing the use of diversion or family court programming; and/or supporting initiatives that reduce the incidence of overdose death. Subawards will be based on the applicant's application assessment score and on the availability of funding. This Request for Application (RFA) is a competitive process.
